

Project Manager

Repost

Job Duties/Responsibilities:

The project Manager is responsible for managing, coordinating, and administering projects from the conceptual stages through different departments until closure. Use knowledge of engineering, procurement, and industry processes including construction, operations, R&D, and business systems throughout the project to assure project scope is accomplished, schedules are met, and work is completed within budget. Manage the development of budgets and schedules, monitor progress, and initiate action to assure project objectives and schedules are met and work is performed within budget. Resolve problems and coordinate the final turnover of the project to the customer. Provide leadership for the development and maintenance of a high performance of a high performance project team. Has overall responsibility for project execution, budgets and schedule, and to the customer and management's performance expectations. Establish and maintain strong and effective customer relations.

Ensure that the principles of ISMS are applied to all work planning, control, and execution. Participate in the planning of work activities including hazard identification, analysis, developing, and implementing controls, and improve processes through application of lessons and learned feedback.

Minimum Qualifications/Skills Requirements:

- 1- BS in applicable field or eighteen years experience
 - 2- Ten years Project Management experience
 - 3- Excellent Communication and organizational skills
-